All volunteers working with children and/or young people must consent to a check of their criminal record being made.

This opportunity is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent' must be disclosed (details if applicable.)

Are you on List 99?

Are you disqualified from working with children?

Are you subject to any sanctions imposed by a regulatory body e.g. the Teaching Regulation Agency (TRA), DfE, etc?

If you respond 'Yes', to any of the above please provide further details in a sealed envelope marked confidential.

Criminal Records Checks / List 99

The Trust has a number of volunteer placements that are involved with vulnerable groups i.e. children and young people/adults with learning difficulties and/or health conditions. To protect these groups the Trust will request information on an applicant's criminal record.

All applicants MUST consent to a check of their criminal record being made before commencing volunteering. List 99 checks MUST be undertaken for all volunteers. List 99 checks are completed as part of the DBS enhanced disclosure regulations.
